VISA APPLICATION

A visa is required for most foreign nationals travelling to Russia. A national passport must be valid.

Visa applications are to be submitted to a Russian consulate located in your home country. You can find contact details of all Russian consulates worldwide on the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs official website <http://www.mid.ru/en/maps>

Visit the website of a Russian Consulate to find a list of required documents. Prepare them and make an appointment for visa application. Schedule a visit to the Consulate on the selected day.

If you encounter any misunderstandings or problems regarding your Russian visa, please feel free to consult us at visaconsult@gfl2019.com

For those who wish to come to pre-GFL in Saint Petersburg or make a stopover in Moscow on the way to Sochi next year: make sure you get confirmation letters from all the hotels you will be staying at, so that you can apply for a multiple entry visa. This will help you avoid having to apply for a visa every time you want to visit our country.
